

Database Lab 2

1. Display employee name and department name for all employees using proper join condition.
2. Display employee name and department name without using a join condition. How many rows are returned? Explain why.
3. Display employee name, salary, and annual salary ($\text{Salary} \times 12$). Remove decimal places from annual salary.
4. Display employee name in proper case using INITCAP function.
5. Display employee name and department name only for employees working in location 'NEW YORK'.
6. Display employee name and salary grade. Salary should fall between LowSal and HighSal.
7. Display employee name and a column called 'Status': If salary > 3000 → 'HIGH', If salary ≤ 3000 → 'NORMAL'. Use DECODE.
8. Display employee name and commission. If commission is NULL, show 0 instead using DECODE.
9. Display employee name, job, and department name for employees who are CLERK and work in department 10.
10. Display distinct department locations from DEPT table.
11. Display employee name and manager number for employees who have a manager.
12. Display employee name and salary grade for employees working in department 20.
13. Display employee name and department name using table aliases E and D.
14. Display employee name and salary truncated to 1 decimal place using TRUNC.
15. Display employee name and department name for employees earning more than 2500 and working in 'DALLAS'.